

Stuyvesant Bee

Volume 1, Issue 83

December 2009

"A tooth fairy so much as touches my kid, and I'll blow his head off."

)i{

MORE WAYS TO COOK AND EAT CELINE DION

Medallions de Dion
Céline Kabobs
Tandoori Dion
Céline Pot Pie

What r your thoughts on WINDSHIELD WIPERS?

I've always wanted one, off and on, since a friend got one (from his aunt) in high school. Well, just as sure as death and taxes, I thought of them again yesterday when it was raining. Here's a drawing I did of the one I want: /

FOOD FACT

Two glasses of orange juice contain more Vitamin C than one glass of orange juice.

"One round-trip ticket to Palookaville, please."

PET PEEVE

If there's one thing that really ticks me off, it's the meaninglessness of life.

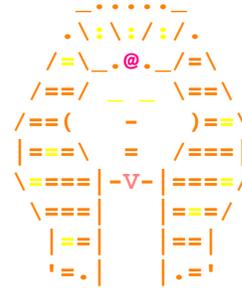

```
  _
  [ ]
  (")
  `--(:)--'
   ( : )
  """"_...-'''''
```

Hey, can I stay in your lobby?

Remember, inside every clown is a silver lining.

ON THE COVER :

BRONZE STATUETTE OF A RUDE ASSHOLE IN A YELLOW BLAZER, 1479 BCE.
H. 62.7 cm.

Cooking With Ice

Push a large block of ice through the city streets until it melts completely. Then blend together the following ingredients.

- 1/3 cup lemon juice
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 4 eggs

Pour the mixture into a graham cracker crust and bake at 325 degrees.

<(")

Wisdom of the Ages

Although Alexander Graham Bell said it more than 100 years ago, it's every bit as true today:
"Mr. Watson—come here."

=_ =

GAME FOR PARTY:

Make one-eighth-inch incision connecting fang marks. Suck out venom and spit it out in container at hips.

>:-!=====*